

Editing-

This is the stage in the writing process where you fix up your mistakes.

Capital letters

- The first word in every sentence. My teacher is a jet.

Check that you have capital letters in all the right spots.

- Proper Nouns- the names of people, places, things. Stephen saw the Pope at the Vatican Square in Vatican.
- When 'I' is by itself. Emma and I went to the shops.

Spelling-

Check that your spelling looks right.

- Circle the words which you do not think are spell correctly. I shopped in the shops to buy some milk.
- Check and correct your spelling by using a dictionary or the word wall. word I shopped in the shops to buy some milk.

Punctuation-

Check that your sentences have been punctuated correctly.

- Does every sentence end with the correct punctuation mark?
- Question Marks ? - are used at the end of sentences asking questions. Did you finish your work?
- Full Stop . - are used at the end of a falling sentence. I go to school.

Punctuation continued-

Check that your sentences have been punctuated correctly.

- Exclamation Marks ! - are used at the ends of falling sentences that show surprise or excitement. Look out!
- Commas , - are used to separate words in a list. Mrs Wilkinson bought some trolleys, rollers, pencils, shopping trolleys and hobbles for her surprise box.
- Speech Marks " " - go around words to show what someone is saying. "Bring me your book," said Miss King.

Editing-

This is the stage in the writing process where you fix up your mistakes.

Capital letters

- The first word in every sentence. My teacher is a jet.

Check that you have capital letters in all the right spots.

- Proper Nouns- the names of people, places, things. Stephen saw the Pope at the Vatican Square in Vatican.
- When 'I' is by itself. Emma and I went to the shops.

Spelling-

Check that your spelling looks right.

- Circle the words which you do not think are spell correctly. I shopped in the shops to buy some milk.
- Check and correct your spelling by using a dictionary or the word wall. word I shopped in the shops to buy some milk.

Punctuation-

Check that your sentences have been punctuated correctly.

- Does every sentence end with the correct punctuation mark?
- Question Marks ? - are used at the end of sentences asking questions. Did you finish your work?
- Full Stop . - are used at the end of a falling sentence. I go to school.

Punctuation continued-

Check that your sentences have been punctuated correctly.

- Exclamation Marks ! - are used at the ends of falling sentences that show surprise or excitement. Look out!
- Commas , - are used to separate words in a list. Mrs Wilkinson bought some trolleys, rollers, pencils, shopping trolleys and hobbles for her surprise box.
- Speech Marks " " - go around words to show what someone is saying. "Bring me your book," said Miss King.

Editing-

This is the stage in the writing process where you fix up your mistakes.

Capital letters

- The first word in every sentence. My teacher is a jet.

Check that you have capital letters in all the right spots.

- Proper Nouns- the names of people, places, things. Stephen saw the Pope at the Vatican Square in Vatican.
- When 'I' is by itself. Emma and I went to the shops.

Spelling-

Check that your spelling looks right.

- Circle the words which you do not think are spell correctly. I shopped in the shops to buy some milk.
- Check and correct your spelling by using a dictionary or the word wall. word I shopped in the shops to buy some milk.

Punctuation-

Check that your sentences have been punctuated correctly.

- Does every sentence end with the correct punctuation mark?
- Question Marks ? - are used at the end of sentences asking questions. Did you finish your work?
- Full Stop . - are used at the end of a falling sentence. I go to school.

Punctuation continued-

Check that your sentences have been punctuated correctly.

- Exclamation Marks ! - are used at the ends of falling sentences that show surprise or excitement. Look out!
- Commas , - are used to separate words in a list. Mrs Wilkinson bought some trolleys, rollers, pencils, shopping trolleys and hobbles for her surprise box.
- Speech Marks " " - go around words to show what someone is saying. "Bring me your book," said Miss King.

